FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

DEMOCRACY DEFENDERS FUND

Washington, DC 20003

Plaintiff,

v.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20530

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 25-cv-_____

COMPLAINT

1. This is an action under the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”), 5 U.S.C. § 552. Plaintiff Democracy Defenders Fund (“Plaintiff” or “DDF”) seeks injunctive and other appropriate relief for the processing and release of agency records requested by Plaintiff from the United States Department of Justice (“Defendant” or “DOJ”) on July 22, 2025. Specifically, DDF seeks information from DOJ’s investigative files of Jeffrey Epstein (“Epstein”) and Ghislaine Maxwell (“Maxwell”) that mention President Trump or his home in Mar-a-Lago (the “Epstein Files” or the “Files”).

2. The Epstein Files include information of great national significance, including information on President Trump’s involvement (or lack thereof) with Epstein and Maxwell in relation to the sex crimes they perpetrated.

3. Despite months of fanfare and promises to release DOJ’s investigative files, DOJ in July unceremoniously announced that it would not be releasing any of the files.

4. The outrageous nature of the alleged activity engaged in by Epstein and the failure of DOJ to release the Files has caused the public much outrage and alarm.

5. The contents of the files also may elucidate any impact that mentions of President Trump or other high-ranking current or former government officials in the Epstein Files may have had on DOJ's decision not to release these documents to the public.

6. On July 22, 2025, Plaintiff filed a Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") with the Criminal Division ("CRM") of DOJ seeking these files in order to provide the public information on actual or alleged federal government activity. To date, CRM has not responded.<sup>1</sup>

7. The purpose of FOIA was "to establish a general philosophy of full agency disclosure unless information is exempted under clearly delineated statutory language." S. Rep. No. 813, 89th Cong., 1st Sess., 3 (1965). A goal of the statute was to ensure an "informed electorate," which was seen as "vital to the proper operations of a democracy." Id. at 2-3.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §§ 552(a)(4)(B), (a)(6)(E)(iii) and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 2201, and 2202.

9. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(B) and 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e).

10. Because Defendant has failed to comply with the applicable time-limit provisions of FOIA, DDF is deemed to have exhausted its administrative remedies pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(C)(i) and is now entitled to judicial review.

PARTIES

11. Plaintiff DDF is a nonpartisan, non-profit section 501(c)(3) organization committed to defending and strengthening democracy while ensuring that all Americans can freely exercise their fundamental civil rights by defending the rule of law, fighting corruption, and protecting elections. DDF strategically uses FOIA and public records requests to gather and analyze information to shine a light on government abuses of power. DDF's public dissemination and media outreach are extensive, allowing it to connect with a vast and diverse audience across various platforms, making it uniquely positioned to effectively inform the public on issues of national significance. The organization is incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia.

12. Defendant Department of Justice is a department of the Executive Branch of the United States Government, and an "agency" of the federal government within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. § 552(f)(1). DOJ is headquartered in Washington, D.C. DOJ has possession, custody, and control of the records that DDF seeks.

BACKGROUND

President Trump and the Epstein Files

13. The "Epstein Files" refers to the thousands of pages of documents related to two criminal investigations into sex trafficking by financier Jeffrey Epstein.<sup>2</sup> The content of the Files, including the people mentioned in them and whether they should be released to the public, has been a hotly contested topic of public conversation since Epstein's death in 2019.<sup>3</sup> Of particular interest has been the prospect of a “client list” naming Epstein’s associates who were also involved in sex trafficking.<sup>4</sup>

14. In the run-up to the 2024 election, President Trump announced that he would release documents related to Epstein’s investigation and his client list,<sup>5</sup> making repeated promises over the years to release the Epstein files.<sup>6</sup>

15. Following President Trump’s inauguration, DOJ reportedly undertook a major review of the Epstein Files, with the apparent goal of releasing information about Epstein’s associates.<sup>7</sup>

16. However, and despite Attorney General Bondi’s assertion<sup>8</sup> in February 2025 that she had the list of Epstein’s clients on her desk, on July 7, 2025, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (“FBI”), a component of DOJ, issued a memo stating that their “systematic review” of the Epstein Files “revealed no incriminating ‘client list.’” Memo on Epstein Investigation, U.S. Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation, (July 7, 2025), at 1, <https://www.justice.gov/opa/media/1407001/dl?inline> (“FBI Memo”). The FBI Memo also asserted that there was “no credible evidence found that Epstein blackmailed prominent individuals as part of his actions.” Id.

17. The FBI concluded that no further disclosures from the Epstein Files were “appropriate or warranted,” in part due to their containing sensitive information relating to Epstein’s many victims, instead sharing only “enhanced” footage of the area surrounding Epstein’s cell at the time of his death. Id. at 1, 2.

18. It was recently reported that Attorney General Bondi orchestrated a frenzied, urgent review of the Epstein Files in May 2025, months after stating she had the Epstein client list on her desk. Attorney General Bondi reportedly tasked nearly 1,000 FBI officials—during 24-hour shifts—with combing through tens of thousands of pages of documents related to Epstein and “flag[ging]” any mentions of the President.<sup>9</sup> Attorney General Bondi also reportedly personally briefed the President on instances of his name appearing in documents related to Jeffrey Epstein in May.<sup>10</sup> No documents from the Epstein Files have been made public since.

DDF’S FOIA Request to DOJ’s Criminal Division

19. On July 22, 2025, DDF sent a FOIA request to the Criminal Division of DOJ seeking to uncover the requested information in furtherance of the public interest. A true and correct copy of the request is attached as Exhibit A.<sup>11</sup>

20. Specifically, DDF requested the following records:

1. All records relating to the Department of Justice's investigation(s) of Jeffrey Epstein that mention, refer to, or include the name of “Donald J. Trump”,

“Donald Trump”, “President Trump” or other variations of his name, “Mar-a-Lago,” or any code name, code word, pseudonym, or other cryptonym that is used to refer to Donald J. Trump or Mar-a-Lago, including records contained in its investigative files of Jeffrey Epstein.

2. All records relating to the Department of Justice’s investigation(s) of Ghislaine Maxwell that mention, refer to, or include the name of “Donald J. Trump”, “Donald Trump”, “President Trump” or other variations of his name, “Mar-a-Lago,” or any code name, code word, pseudonym, or other cryptonym that is used to refer to Donald J. Trump or Mar-a-Lago, including records contained in its investigative files of Ghislaine Maxwell.

Exhibit A at 1.

21. DDF requested a fee waiver under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A) and 28 C.F.R. § 16.10(k). Exhibit A at 2–4.

22. DDF also requested expedited processing pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(6)(E) and DOJ’s implementing regulations at 28 C.F.R. §§ 16.5(e)(1)(ii), (iv), all of which require DOJ to inform the requester of whether expedited processing will be granted within ten days of receiving the request. Id. at 4–7. Pursuant to FOIA and DOJ requirements, 5 U.S.C. § 552(6)(E)(vi), 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(3), DDF included the requisite, certified statement articulating the basis for its request for expedited processing. Exhibit A at 4–7.

23. Although DOJ’s Office of Public Affairs (“OPA”) was copied on the original request, out of an abundance of caution, on July 23, 2025, DDF contacted OPA via its online FOIA portal, referencing the FOIA request to CRM and reiterating the request in support of its fee waiver and expedited processing requests. A true and correct copy of the confirmation of that submission is attached as Exhibit B.<sup>12</sup>

24. On July 24, 2025, DDF emailed CRM’s FOIA Officer requesting confirmation of receipt of the FOIA request, as well as a tracking number. A true and correct copy of that email is attached as Exhibit C.<sup>13</sup>

25. On July 24, 2025, CRM’s FOIA/PA Unit sent DDF an email confirming receipt of the July 22, 2025 FOIA request and providing a tracking number of CRM-302309194. A true and correct copy of that email is attached as Exhibit D.<sup>14</sup>

26. FOIA requires federal agencies to respond to a request for records within twenty business days after receiving a request, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(A)(i), in the absence of specified “unusual circumstances.” Id. § 552(a)(6)(B). Agencies’ responses to FOIA requests must inform the requester whether the agency will comply with such request and the reasons therefore. Id.

27. To date, DDF has not received any response from CRM indicating whether CRM will comply with the request or the timeframe for any CRM response, nor has CRM alleged any “unusual circumstances” per 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(B) that would require an extension of the original August 19, 2025, deadline. Neither CRM, OPA, nor any other DOJ office has informed DDF whether it will be granted expedited processing.

28. To date, CRM has failed to produce a single record in response to Plaintiff’s request.

The National Significance of President Trump’s Role in the Epstein Files

29. The requested records relate to matters of significant national public interest concerning President Trump’s interactions with Epstein and Maxwell in relation to the sex crimes they perpetrated.

30. President Trump's interactions with Epstein and Maxwell, specifically any interactions that would merit mention in the Epstein files, raise serious ethical concerns regarding the federal government's decisions about whether to publicize the files. These concerns have been heightened by Deputy Attorney General Todd Blanche's recent meetings with Maxwell in jail to question her about information that might be contained in the requested files.<sup>15</sup> President Trump's relationship with Epstein and Maxwell is not fully understood, nor is the role that that relationship played in the federal government's decision not to publicize the files.

31. The requested records would inform the public of any involvement that President Trump had with Epstein and Maxwell that was sufficient to merit a mention in the files, including in regard to any sex crimes that were perpetrated, and any crimes or related events that may have taken place at his home in Mar-a-Lago.

32. The requested records would also shed light on the federal government's decision not to publicize the files despite President Trump's 2024 campaign promises to do so. Specifically, the requested records may reveal whether any mention of President Trump or Mar-a-Lago in the files may have affected President Trump's decision not to publicly release the Epstein files after repeatedly pledging to do so.

33. The contribution to the public's understanding that would be served by releasing the requested files is significant. The public has a right to know how the federal government is making decisions about whether and how to publicize information about serious crimes that were committed, and whether a friendship between the President and criminals Epstein and Maxwell has led the federal government to withhold information that would have otherwise been made public.

<sup>15</sup> See, e.g., Rebecca Beitsch, Maxwell attorney after second meeting with DOJ: 'The truth will come out,' THE HILL (July 25, 2025), <https://thehill.com/homenews/administration/5420763-ghislaine-maxwell-interview-blanche/>.

34. Given that DDF is a nonpartisan, non-profit section 501(c)(3) organization, the request is entirely for non-commercial purposes. DDF does not seek these records for the purposes of commercial, trade, or profit interests. DDF requests these records for educational purposes—the organization intends to study the records responsive to this request and to share its results with the public through investigative analyses, publications, press releases, or other mechanisms, including on DDF’s website at <https://www.democracydefendersfund.org>.

Expedient Disclosure of the Requested Records is Warranted

35. This is a case of obvious “urgency to inform the public concerning actual or alleged Federal Government activity,” 5 U.S.C. § 522(6)(E)(v), 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(1)(ii), that is a “[a] matter of widespread and exceptional media interest in which there exist possible questions about the government’s integrity that affect public confidence.” 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(1)(iv).

36. The urgency is clear even under DOJ’s own standards for expedited processing: The existence of numerous articles published on a given subject can be helpful in establishing the requirement that there be an “urgency to inform the public on the topic.” 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(3). Over the past eight months alone, hundreds of news articles on this Administration’s handling of the Epstein files have been published.<sup>16</sup>

<sup>16</sup> See, e.g., Ashley Oliver, 10 reasons the DOJ and FBI face backlash over Epstein files flop, FOX NEWS (July 10, 2025), <https://www.foxnews.com/politics/10-reasons-doj-fbi-face-backlash-over-epstein-files-flop>; Jacqui Heinrich, Trump taking hits at mountain of Republicans pushing for Epstein file release, FOX NEWS (July 16, 2025), <https://www.foxnews.com/video/6375726865112>; Luke Broadwater, Trump Talks About Anything but Epstein on His Social Media Account, THE NEW YORK TIMES (July 21, 2025), <https://www.nytimes.com/2025/07/21/us/politics/trump-epstein-social-media.html>; Erica L. 37. High-profile actions by public officials further underscore this urgency. On August 5, 2025, a bi-partisan coalition of House members issued a subpoena requesting the same documents DDF has requested.<sup>17</sup> The President has assembled the Vice President and high-level DOJ officials behind closed doors to discuss how to strategically address allegations that he is named in the Epstein Files.<sup>18</sup> Just this week, DOJ agreed to share with Congress documents from the Epstein investigation.<sup>19</sup>

38. It is imperative that these records be released so that the public has an unadulterated and transparent understanding of what is in the files, and not just what high-level officials want the public to hear.

39. Indeed, last month, DOJ moved to unseal the grand jury transcripts from the Epstein indictment, citing “extensive public interest in the basis for the [FBI Memo’s] conclusions” and noting that “transparency to the American public is of the utmost importance.”<sup>20</sup>

40. DOJ’s 2024 Annual FOIA Report indicates that CRM, as of the time of the report, had 1,024 pending FOIA requests, with the oldest outstanding dating back to 2015.<sup>21</sup> The Annual Report also indicates that it can take CRM 2,194 days, or more than six years to respond to requests. Exhibit E at 45.

41. Without expedited processing, CRM’s response to DDF’s FOIA request is likely to take years, significantly undermining, if not eliminating, the purpose and value of the response.

EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES

42. To date, CRM has failed to notify DDF of any determination regarding its FOIA request, including the scope of any responsive records the agency intends to produce or withhold and the reasons for any withholdings within the statutory timeline. CRM has also failed to produce the requested records or demonstrate that the requested records are lawfully exempt from production within the statutory timeline. Additionally, CRM has failed to respond to DDF’s request for a fee waiver within the statutory timeline.

43. Through CRM's failure to respond to DDF's FOIA request within the time period required by law, DDF has exhausted its administrative remedies and now seeks immediate judicial review. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(6)(C)(i)

CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I

Violation of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552 Failure to Conduct Adequate Searches for Responsive Records

44. DDF reasserts and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth above as if each was set forth herein.

45. DDF properly requested records within the possession, custody, and control of the Defendant.

46. DOJ is an agency subject to and within the meaning of FOIA, and it must therefore make reasonable efforts to search for requested records.

47. DOJ has failed to promptly and adequately search for records responsive to DDF's FOIA request.

48. DOJ's failure to conduct adequate searches for responsive records violates FOIA.

49. DDF has exhausted the applicable administrative remedies with respect to Defendant's wrongful failure to make reasonable efforts to search for the requested records.

50. DDF is therefore entitled to injunctive and declaratory relief requiring DOJ to promptly make reasonable efforts to search for records responsive to DDF's FOIA requests.

COUNT II

Violation of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552
Wrongful Withholding of Non-Exempt Responsive Records

51. DDF reasserts and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth above as if each was set forth herein.

52. DDF properly requested records within the possession, custody, and control of Defendant.

53. DOJ is an agency subject to and within the meaning of FOIA, and it must release non-exempt portions of records requested under FOIA.

54. DOJ is wrongfully withholding non-exempt agency records requested by DDF by failing to produce non-exempt records responsive to its FOIA request.

55. DOJ is wrongfully withholding non-exempt agency records requested by DDF by failing to segregate exempt information in otherwise non-exempt records responsive to DDF's FOIA request.

56. DOJ's failure to provide all non-exempt responsive records violates FOIA.

57. DDF has exhausted the applicable administrative remedies with respect to Defendants' wrongful failure to make reasonable efforts to search for the requested records.

58. DDF is therefore entitled to declaratory and injunctive relief requiring DOJ to promptly produce all non-exempt records responsive to its FOIA requests and provide indexes justifying the withholding of any responsive records withheld under claim of exemption.

COUNT III

Failure to Grant Request for Waiver of Fees

59. DDF reasserts and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth above as if each was set forth herein.

60. DDF timely requested a fee waiver for the production of responsive records because it intends to use these records to educate and inform the general public on the Epstein Files that mention President Trump and Mar-a-Lago, and DDF is a non-commercial requester.

61. DOJ failed to respond to DDF's request for fee waiver within the statutory time frame.

62. DDF has exhausted the applicable administrative remedies with respect to Defendants' wrongful failure to make reasonable efforts to search for the requested records.

63. DDF is therefore entitled to declaratory and injunctive relief as to Plaintiff's request for a fee waiver.

COUNT IV

Violation of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552
Failure to Grant Expedited Processing

64. DDF reasserts and re-alleges each and every allegation set forth above as if each was set forth herein.

65. By failing to grant DDF's request for expedited processing on DDF's FOIA request concerning matters of widespread and exceptional media interest in which there exist possible questions about the government's integrity that affect public confidence, 28 C.F.R. § 16.5(e)(1)(iv), and national urgent need to inform the public, 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6)(E)(iii), DOJ has violated FOIA.

RELIEF SOUGHT

WHEREFORE, DDF requests that this Court:

- (1) Order DOJ to conduct a search or searches reasonably calculated to uncover all records responsive to DDF's FOIA request;
- (2) Order DOJ to produce, within twenty days of the Court's order, or by such other date as the Court deems appropriate, any and all non-exempt records responsive to DDF's FOIA request with indexes justifying the withholding of any responsive records withheld under claim of exemption;
- (3) Enjoin DOJ from continuing to withhold any and all non-exempt records responsive to DDF's FOIA request;
- (4) Order DOJ to grant DDF's fee waiver request in connection with its FOIA request;
- (5) Provide for expedited proceedings in this action;
- (6) Award DDF the costs of this proceeding, including reasonable attorneys' fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred in this action, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(E); and
- (7) Grant DDF such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.
